Subject: RE: Investment declarations to be uploaded on PayWheel

Hi Sanjana/ Lakshmi,

I am shocked to see that it is mentioned as "You are serving notice period" in the below mail without any prior information given to me in earlier communications(technically notice period applicable after I apply resignation).

I have a family with kids and parents to look after and without job I am scared on how to pay my 60,000 EMI and maintain family in this pandemic (also Need Health Insurance).
As we discussed earlier on your suggestion I am taking your advice to apply for resignation and get relieved on 10th of December but I request you to provide me 4 months of salary compensation so that I can pay my bills and take care of my family in this difficult times.

So please consider my request as mentioned above and please do the needful.

Thank you
Bhushan M B

Hi,

This is to inform you that since you are serving notice period we request you to upload all your investment declaration documents on PayWheel before 1PM tomorrow (3rd December).

Please feel free to get in touch with People Operations Team for any clarifications.

Thank you and regards
